PLSR Update:

- Director Chase has been selected as a model development summit participant. Three directors from the Bridges Library will participate. The two-day Summit will be on July 30-31, 2018 to help the Steering Committee and CRCs further develop administrative, governance, and funding structure recommendations.
- Workgroup recommendation reports are now available at – <http://www.plsr.info/workgroups/workgroupreport/>. The comment period for the workgroup reports runs April 2 – April 23.

National Library Week (April 8 -14):

- April 8-14 is National Library Week, an annual celebration of the life-changing work of libraries, librarians, and library workers. Libraries aren't just places to borrow books or study – they're also creative and engaging community centers where people can collaborate using new technologies and develop their skills and passions.
 "The library helps lead our community by advocating for widespread access to crucial services and lifelong learning," said Alli Chase, Library Director of the Alice Baker Memorial Public Library. "Libraries level the playing field for people of any age who seek information and access to technologies to improve their quality of life."
