Library Legislative Day

State aid is a crucial part of the library environment in Wisconsin. In the next months, the legislature will focus on the next state budget, part of which will be determining how much funding will be available for library systems, library contracts, and Recollection Wisconsin.

You can help! Sign up for Library Legislative Day now and join the Wisconsin library community in Madison on February 7, 2023.

Signing up is easy. Go to <https://wla.memberclicks.net/library-legislative-day-2> and sign yourself up--and spread the word to your local library supporters!

This year the morning session will be held at the Madison Public Library. Need somewhere to stay the night before? WLA has worked with the Madison Concourse Hotel and has a block of rooms available. More information about Legislative Day is available at the link above.

Sign up today! Don't wait!
