"American Songbook; 250 Years, a Good Start!"
Thursday, April 16 in the Eagle Municipal Building

Music historian, Ed Pierce, and the musicians of the Kettle Moraine Blues will take a lighthearted, yet informative look at some of our greatest musical treasures. The program will include a sing a long, a fun-filled audience "quiz" on American music, and a discussion on how people from Wisconsin came to influence some of our greatest national musical treasures. The melodies range from "hits" of 1776 through popular compositions from the late 20th century. Historical, musical, and fun! Bring the kids and grandkids! Presented by the Eagle Historical Society.
